

WSP/CoE (Self-Customized, Regulator Specific)

RIA COMPLIANCE CONSULTANTS, INC.

COMPLIANCE SERVICES AGREEMENT

WSP/CoE (SELF-CUSTOMIZED, REGULATOR SPECIFIC)

This Compliance Services Agreement, which includes and incorporates the attached schedules and/or addendums, (the "Agreement") is between RIA Compliance Consultants, Inc., a Nebraska corporation located at 6910 Pacific Street, Suite 102, Omaha, Nebraska 68106 ("RCC"), and client as identified below (the "Client").

Section 1. Scope of Engagement & Compliance Services Are Limited

This scope of this engagement and the compliance services available from RCC under this Agreement are limited as described in Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein ("Compliance Services"). The term "Securities Regulator" as used in this Agreement refers to the primary U.S. securities regulator of Client as an investment adviser. RCC does not provide any assistance with or services for compliance requirements of foreign securities regulators.

Section 2. Fees & Term

RCC's fees, expenses, initial retainer, method of payments, billing practices, replenishment of retainers, term and refunds for this engagement are described in Exhibit B attached hereto and incorporated herein and the Minimum Fixed Fee and Hourly Rate Schedule attached hereto and incorporated herein.

Section 3. Client's Duties

(a) Client recognizes the value and usefulness of the Compliance Services of RCC are dependent upon the accuracy and completeness of the information provided by Client to RCC. Client will provide RCC with all requested information and documents that RCC may reasonably request in order to prepare any mutually agreed upon investment advisor documents and perform RCC's Compliance Services. Client will affirmatively disclose to RCC (without RCC making a specific request) any material information related to the Compliance Services being provided to Client. Depending upon the particular services being provided to Client, the following are examples of material information which should be shared with RCC: (i) any deficiencies or violations (known to Client or Client's executives, staff or investment adviser representatives) of Client's code of ethics or supervisory procedures and policies; (ii) any deficiencies or violations (known to Client or Client's executives, staff or investment adviser representatives) of applicable rules, regulations or laws; (iii) any current or prior inquiries or investigations by Client regarding violations of Client's code of ethics or supervisory procedures and policies, any rules, regulations and laws, or industry practices; (iv) any current or prior customer disputes, arbitrations or lawsuits related to Client or Client's executives, staff or investment adviser representatives; and (v) any regulatory or criminal inquiries, investigations or proceedings regarding Client or Client's executives, staff or investment adviser representatives.

RCC will not be responsible for the verification of the information and documentation provided by Client. RCC will not be responsible for verifying the accuracy or truthfulness of any information, document or statements provided by the officers, staff, investment adviser representatives or outside professionals (such as attorneys and accountants) of Client.

(b) It is Client's responsibility to fully disclose in advance to RCC all material facts related to Client's investment advisor. Moreover, it is Client's duty to review, understand, add, edit and revise if necessary, implement and update any documents (e.g., disclosure document, policies, procedures, checklists and code of ethics) provided or prepared by RCC.

To the extent that Compliance Services involve written supervisory procedures or code of ethics, Client understands that the template and customized written supervisory policies and procedures and code of ethics provided or prepared by RCC are based generally upon the published investment adviser rules of Securities Regulator but should not be considered as exhaustive, comprehensive or definitive list of Client's obligations under the investment adviser laws and rules; the template and customized written supervisory policies and procedures and code of ethics provided or prepared by RCC may not necessarily address every topic, policy or procedure that may need to be covered by Client. RCC offers no warranty or guaranty that the written supervisory procedures or code of ethics provided by RCC is current or addresses all topics, conflicts of interest, rules, policies and procedures required by Securities Regulator. RCC strongly recommends that Client review all of the specific statutes and regulations of Securities Regulator for an investment adviser. Any template and customized written supervisory policies and procedures and code of ethics provided or prepared by RCC are not a substitute for Client fully understanding the applicable investment adviser laws and rules. The written supervisory policies and procedures and code of ethics should be treated by Client as a living and breathing document that should be regularly referred to and updated by Client. In other words, Client should not place its written supervisory policies and procedures and code of ethics on a shelf and let it gather dust. Client understands that due to changes of investment adviser laws and rules, Client's written supervisory policies and procedures or code of ethics may need to be updated. Client acknowledges that RCC is not responsible under this Agreement for notifying Client of changes to the investment advisor laws and rules, and it will be Client's duty to update the written supervisory policies and procedures and code of ethics.

(c) Upon initial presentment and prior to using with a securities regulator, investment advisory clients or the public, Client will thoroughly review all investment advisor documents prepared by RCC to ensure that such documents are factually accurate and consistent with Client's actual practices. Client will ensure that all documents have been fully customized to be consistent with Client's actual business model. Additionally, Client will ensure that proposed documents make full and fair disclosure of all material facts necessary for informed decision making by investors, especially where a possible conflict of interest is involved, irrespective of whether such disclosure is called for by a specific item of a regulatory document. Client will immediately advise RCC of any inaccuracies, omissions of material facts or inconsistencies that Client finds in such documents. If Client does not understand any particular disclosure or term within such documents, Client will immediately inform RCC. Client understands that by providing any document prepared by RCC to clients, securities regulators, and the general public, Client is acknowledging the accuracy of the information contained in all such documents prepared by RCC and used by Client. It will be Client's responsibility to fully review, understand and resolve the deficiencies identified by RCC. RCC will not be responsible under the Compliance Service of this Agreement for drafting or implementing any recommendations identified during the assessments of the investment advisory documents and compliance program.

(d) Client will provide detailed information to RCC regarding, but not necessarily limited to, Client's preferred business model, investment advisory services, fee structure, and custodian or money managers. Although RCC at its discretion may discuss various options or offer examples regarding how the Client could structure its investment advisory services, Client understands RCC's expertise is limited to compliance matters.

(e) Client will be responsible for designating a principal or employee of Client to serve as the administrator of Client's IARD/Web CRD account. If Client desires RCC to file documents (approved by Client) via IARD or CRD systems, Client will authorize RCC to serve as a user (non-administrator) of Client's IARD/Web CRD account.

(f) Client will be solely responsible for funding the IARD/Web CRD account.

(g) Client understands that the Compliance Services do not include RCC verifying the existence and/or safekeeping of the assets held by Client or a third-party custodian. The Compliance Services will not include RCC contacting investment advisory clients of Client.

(h) Client will designate at least one individual at Client's firm to receive, review, and take action on RCC's newsletters, blog posts on RCC's website and other electronic notices sent by RCC via email or RCC's client portal. Client acknowledges that such notices will include important information that could require Client's immediate action. RCC is not responsible for Client's failure to read, understand, or respond to important notices and communications sent by RCC.

(i) Client understands that the Compliance Services do not include RCC providing any evaluation of the suitability of asset allocations, investment and trading strategies or investment recommendations made by Client. Additionally, RCC does not conduct due diligence of investment products, securities issuers, fund managers, or other investment advisors utilized by Client. RCC does not offer investment advice.

(j) Client understands that an actual examination of Client's investment advisor by a securities regulator is likely to be more staff intensive and broader in scope than the Compliance Service offered by RCC, and consequently, a securities regulator is highly likely to detect deficiencies and violations, which were not uncovered during assessment of Client's investment advisory documents or compliance program as part of the Compliance Service.

(k) Client will retain legal counsel to prepare or review Client's investment advisory client agreement. RCC will not provide Client with any sample investment advisory client agreements and will not review any existing investment advisory client agreements presented by Client.

(l) Fees paid to RCC will never cover any of the following: client's expense associated with acquiring a surety bond (if required by the Securities Regulator); the costs of registration, examination, licensing and user fees charged by the applicable Securities Regulators and IARD system; and the fees charged by other professionals, such as an accountant or lawyer, hired by Client.

(m) Client will designate at least one individual at Client's firm to receive, review, and take action on newsletters and other electronic notices sent by RCC via email or RCC's client portal. Client acknowledges that such notices will include important information including regulatory alerts that could require Client's immediate action. RCC is not responsible for Client's failure to read, understand, or respond to important notices and communications sent by RCC.

(n) To the extent that Client requests RCC to prepare and/or file the Form ADV to register or notice file Client's investment adviser or the Form U4 or Form U5 to register/de-register an individual as an investment adviser representative of Client's investment adviser, Client is solely responsible for verifying that RCC in fact prepared and filed such document with the applicable securities regulator. Since failure to register or notice file can result in an adverse regulatory enforcement proceeding, Client cannot merely rely upon RCC to prepare or file such document without further verification by Client that such request has been completed.

(o) Client will follow and comply with all laws and rules of the applicable securities regulators.

Section 4. Nature of Compliance Consulting Relationship

RCC is a compliance consulting and services firm. Although RCC has an affiliate that is a law firm known as Bryan Hill Law ("BHL") and RCC may have an individual on its staff that is also licensed as an attorney offering legal services in a completely separate capacity and through BHL, RCC is not a law firm or an attorney and does not provide legal services.

In general, a licensed attorney is regulated by his or her state supreme court through the use of rules of professional conduct and ethical requirements, minimum education and examination requirements, mandatory professional liability insurance coverage, client trust account procedures and trust account audits and a disciplinary process. Unlike a client of an attorney, a client of RCC will not receive the advantages of such regulatory oversight since the compliance consultant occupation is not licensed by state government.

A compliance consulting relationship with RCC is not provided those legal and professional protections that normally exist under an attorney-client relationship such as the following: (i) privileged communication between an attorney and client; (ii) the requirement for an attorney to use a client trust account for safekeeping of legal fees paid in advance by a client; (iii) the requirement for an attorney to maintain professional liability insurance; or (iv) prohibitions preventing an attorney from having impermissible relationships with clients, representing other persons with conflicting interests, receiving referral fees from third-party vendors, or prospectively limiting liability for malpractice through contractual provisions in a client agreement.

Unlike an attorney, RCC does not utilize a client trust account for the retainer or consulting fees paid in advance by a client, does not follow trust accounting procedures (and is not supervised by a regulator or third-party) for such retainer or consulting fees paid in advance, and either prohibits or severely limits the circumstances and time period for refunds, and consequently this arrangement with RCC lacks the safeguards associated with an attorney's client trust account. Due to limitations in the software used by RCC to prepare invoices, there may be references located on requests and/or invoices to a "trust" account; however, Client acknowledges that despite any such references, RCC does not utilize a client trust account.

Unlike an attorney, RCC is not fiduciary. Unlike an attorney, RCC does not maintain professional liability insurance. Unlike an attorney, RCC is utilizing several contractual provisions within this Agreement in which Client waives any and all liability for certain claims and agrees to limit the extent of RCC's liability for malpractice for other claims. Unlike an attorney, RCC receives referral fees from vendors participating in the Strategic Alliance Program and other referral programs of RCC.

If RCC provides Client with comments regarding an investment advisory agreement or other agreement, this does not constitute and should not be deemed as legal advice. Such comments provided by RCC are not a substitute for a review, revision and approval of Client's investment advisory agreement or other agreement by an attorney in Client's jurisdiction. Client understands that any comments provided by RCC regarding Client's investment advisory agreement or other agreement have not been prepared by an attorney to comply with the laws of Client's local jurisdiction. Client acknowledges that by relying upon comments provided by RCC without local legal counsel's review and approval, Client is undertaking the risk that Client's investment advisory agreement or other agreement is not legally enforceable and may fail to best protect Client's interests.

In the event that a securities regulator initiates an enforcement proceeding against Client claiming Client violated applicable law, Client will need to retain legal counsel to represent Client before the securities regulator. Although RCC may serve as an expert resource to Client and Client's legal counsel regarding industry practices, RCC is not a substitute for retaining appropriate legal counsel.

There is no guarantee that consulting work performed by RCC will be favorably received by the applicable securities regulators.

RCC strongly recommends that prior to executing this Agreement, Client should retain an attorney, who is not affiliated with RCC, to review and provide Client with independent advice regarding the terms of this Agreement.

Client Initials

Section 5. Non-Exclusive Relationship with RCC

Client does not have an exclusive client relationship with RCC. RCC may have other clients receiving services from RCC which are competitors of Client and/or include former supervised persons of Client. RCC may also have other clients that have a business alliance, broker-dealer or vendor relationship with Client or Client's associated persons.

Section 6. Strategic Alliance Program & Other Referral Arrangements

RCC has established the Strategic Alliance Program and other referral arrangements whereby RCC has agreed to publicize the services and/or products of Strategic Alliance members and certain third-party vendors and refer or introduce such Strategic Alliance members and third-party vendors to Client. Depending upon the third-party vendor, Client may receive discounts or special offers from the Strategic Alliance member or third-party vendor. RCC receives compensation from each Strategic Alliance member and third-party vendor referred or introduced by RCC which may include an annual fixed fee and/or a percentage of the fee charged by the third-party vendor to Client. This creates a conflict of interest for RCC and biases the objectivity of RCC and its employees when referring, introducing, referencing or otherwise discussing such Strategic Alliance Members and third-party vendors. Client is under no obligation to utilize the services and/or products of Strategic Alliance members and other third-party vendors referred or introduced to Client by RCC.

RCC is not affiliated with the Strategic Alliance members and any other third-party vendors and does not control or supervise the services or products of the Strategic Alliance member or other third-party vendors. Client acknowledges that RCC's referral, introduction, discussion or other reference to these Strategic Alliance members or third-party vendors does not mean that RCC has performed any level of due diligence on the services or products of the Strategic Alliance members or other third-party vendors referred or introduced by RCC. Client acknowledges and agrees that RCC is not liable for any damages that result to Client from the actions or inactions of a Strategic Alliance member or third-party vendor referred or introduced by RCC.

RCC is not making any recommendation to Client about whether Client should utilize the services or products of a Strategic Alliance member or other third-party vendor. Client acknowledges that Client's determination to use the services or products of a Strategic Alliance member or any other third-party vendor is an important decision and should not be based upon a third-party vendor's participation in the Strategic Alliance Program or referral, introduction or reference by RCC. As with any service provider, RCC recommends that Client perform its own due diligence on each Strategic Alliance member or third-party vendor referred or introduced by RCC. Before engaging the services or utilizing the product of a Strategic Alliance member or third-party vendor referred or introduced by RCC, Client agrees to perform its own independent investigation and evaluation to make sure that the applicable service or product of the Strategic Alliance member or third-party vendor is the best fit for Client and meets Client's performance requirements and regulatory and cybersecurity obligations.

Section 7. Non-Solicit of RCC Employees

Without the written consent of the president of RCC, during the term of this Agreement and for a period of twelve months after this Agreement's termination, Client and Client's affiliates will not engage in any of the following activities: (1) directly or indirectly solicit, contact, negotiate with, or in any manner attempt to induce any individual, who is currently employed by RCC and personally works or worked with Client while affiliated with RCC, to terminate his or her employment with RCC; nor (2) hire or engage any individual, who is currently employed with RCC and personally worked with Client while at RCC, as an employee or a compliance consultant (outside of an engagement through RCC). Under no circumstances will this section prevent a Client from soliciting or hiring a current or former RCC employee, who is licensed as an attorney, to serve as the Client's attorney.

Section 8. Client's Confidential Information

In providing Compliance Services, RCC will acquire information of a confidential nature relating to Client's business activities and its investment advisory clients. RCC hereby agrees to maintain the confidentiality of Client's information and shall not use, publish, or otherwise disclose any such confidential information pertaining to Client without Client's express written consent.

If Client provides RCC with possession of any investment advisory related document, Client will redact (blackout or remove) at least partially the legal name of each investment advisory client and any full or complete brokerage account numbers, bank account numbers, policy numbers, credit card numbers, driver's license numbers, passport numbers, visa numbers, social security numbers, tax identification numbers, passwords and dates of birth of investment advisory clients before providing RCC with possession of such document containing this confidential information. For example, if Client intends to provide RCC with a document which includes name of investment advisory client (e.g., Thomas Andrew Smith) with a full date of birth (01/14/1973), Client will redact or black-out the investment advisory client's name to only show "Smith" (or a client number if utilized by the firm) and date of birth to only show "1973".

RCC recognizes that Client may be subject to the provisions of the Securities and Exchange Commission's Regulation S-P, or other privacy rules promulgated under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (the "GLBA"). RCC represents that it is a nonaffiliated third-party service provider that is excepted from the notice and opt-out requirements pursuant to the GLBA.

To the extent that Client is utilizing RCC to assist with registering and/or notice filing as an investment adviser or investment adviser representative, Client authorizes RCC to disclose, as reasonably necessary, confidential information about Client's business activities to the applicable securities regulators as part of the investment advisor registration process.

Nothing in this Section will diminish or restrict RCC's right, as later described in this Agreement, to use for the benefit of another party any materials that are the same (except for Client's name, CRD number or associated persons' names) as or similar to the materials prepared by RCC for Client under this Agreement.

Section 9. Not Work Made for Hire & Limited, Non-Exclusive License

RCC shall retain sole ownership of the copyright of all materials prepared by RCC under this Agreement. After removing Client's name, Client's CRD number and the names of Client's associated persons, RCC may use the materials prepared by RCC under this Agreement for parties or investment advisors other than Client without any limitations, restrictions or charges to RCC. Under no circumstances shall any materials prepared by RCC pursuant to the Agreement constitute works made for hire under copyright law. Client will execute any necessary forms or papers that RCC considers necessary to secure RCC's copyright with no charge to RCC.

RCC shall grant Client a limited, non-exclusive license to use the materials prepared by RCC under this Agreement in the following manner and under only these conditions:

- Client may make copies of the materials prepared by RCC under this Agreement if Client preserves RCC's copyright notice on the copies of such materials;
- Client may provide the above described copies of the materials prepared by RCC under this Agreement to Client's existing and prospective investment advisory customers, the custodians of investment advisory accounts managed by Client, any broker-dealer with supervisory responsibility of an associated person of Client, a sub-advisor, co-advisor or solicitor subject to a written solicitor arrangement or investment advisor agreement with Client, any attorneys and accountants retained by Client, any securities regulator with jurisdiction over Client, filings for Client's investment adviser through the Investment Adviser Registration Depository ("IARD") system and/or as otherwise required by law;
- Client may utilize materials previously prepared by RCC under this Agreement for the purpose of preparing new materials solely for Client's investment advisor;

- Client may not use or distribute for use the materials prepared by RCC under this Agreement for use or modification by any other investment advisor. Client may not sell the materials prepared by RCC under this Agreement. Client may not prepare new materials for any other investment advisor based upon the materials previously prepared by RCC under this Agreement; and
- Client may not transfer, assign or sell this limited, non-exclusive license to a third-party (except for Client's parent, subsidiary, affiliate or successor) without RCC's written authorization.

Section 10. Not Intended to Detect Fraud

Client understands that the Compliance Services provided under this Agreement are not intended to detect or prevent fraud including but not limited to inaccurate or false calculation or valuation of assets under management, false statements of the Form ADV, bribery, extortion, identity theft, forgery, misrepresentation, collusion to circumvent internal controls, selling away, unlawful sale of unregistered securities, failure to register as an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative thereof, failure to register as a securities broker-dealer or a registered representative thereof, Ponzi schemes, insider trading, undisclosed outside business activities, inaccurate or false fee calculations, a loan from a client, a bribe, cybersecurity breach, identity theft, wire fraud, unauthorized disbursement, theft, embezzlement, misappropriation or unlawful conversion by Client or Client's owners, directors, officers, employees, investment adviser representatives, solicitors, custodians, third-party money managers, vendors or outside professionals.

(c) Force Majeure. In the event either party is unable to perform its obligations under the terms of this Agreement because of acts of God (including fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, storm, hurricane or other natural disaster), terrorism, war, cyberwar, invasion, espionage, cyber espionage, act of foreign enemies, rebellion, strikes, equipment or transmission failure or damage reasonably beyond its control, or other causes reasonably beyond its control, such party shall not be liable for damages to the other party resulting from such failure to perform or otherwise from such causes.

Section 13. No Third-Party Beneficiary

This Agreement and the Compliance Services provided under this Agreement are for the exclusive benefit of Client. The materials prepared under this Agreement are not provided for the benefit of a third-party such as a broker-dealer, custodian, or investment adviser that has a business relationship with Client or an individual or entity who is a recipient or customer of Client's investment advisory services.

Section 14. Limitation of Liability

IN NO EVENT WILL RCC'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY TO CLIENT FOR ANY AND ALL CLAIMS RELATING TO THE COMPLIANCE SERVICES PROVIDED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY OF LIABILITY, EXCEED THE FEES PAID BY CLIENT FOR THE COMPLIANCE SERVICES PROVIDED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 15. Choice of Law and Venue

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed according to the laws of the State of Nebraska without giving effect to its choice of laws principles. The parties agree that all actions and proceedings arising out of or relating directly or indirectly to this Agreement or any ancillary agreement or any other related obligations shall be litigated solely and exclusively in the state or federal courts located in Omaha, Nebraska.

Section 16. Client Should Independently Evaluate Whether to Hire RCC

Client understands that the determination to use a third-party compliance services provider is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements or self-proclaimed expertise. RCC has not been certified by an agency or board as a specialist or expert in investment advisor compliance. Client acknowledges that RCC recommended that Client conduct an independent investigation and evaluation of RCC prior to executing this Agreement.

The determination to use a third-party compliance services provider is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements or self-proclaimed expertise. A description or indication of limitation of RCC's Compliance Services does not mean that an agency or board has certified RIA Compliance Consultants, Inc. as a specialist or expert in investment advisor compliance. All potential clients are urged to make their own independent investigation and evaluation of RIA Compliance Consultants, Inc.

Section 17. Agree to Above Terms of Engagement

The parties hereto agree to the above terms and have caused this Agreement to be executed in their names and on their behalf by and through their duly authorized persons.

Exhibit A - Scope of Engagement & Compliance Services

RCC will provide investment advisor compliance services to Client during the Agreement Period as set forth in Exhibit A ("Compliance Services").

Client and RCC will agree mutually upon a timeline which reasonably distributes the work associated with the above described Compliance Services during the term of the Agreement. In the event Client would like to modify the Compliance Services listed in Exhibit A after execution of this Agreement, a written request must be provided to RCC. Changes to the Compliance Services listed are contingent upon the written agreement of both RCC and Client.

RIA Express - Manual Drafter - During each engagement period, RCC will provide Client with one-time access to RCC's electronic authoring wizard, RIA Express - Manual Drafter, for the purpose of creating one (1) set of customized, written supervisory procedures and code of ethics ("Self-Customized, Regulator Specific WSP/CoE").

Client will complete a detailed questionnaire about Client's investment advisory personnel, business model, procedures and practices. The answers provided by Client will be used by RCC's electronic authoring wizard to create for Client a Self-Customized, Regulator Specific WSP/CoE as it relates to the applicable topics listed below. This Self-Customized, Regulator Specific WSP/CoE is customized by RCC's electronic authoring wizard based upon the published investment advisor rules of Client's Securities Regulator and the answers provided by Client when completing the questionnaire previously referenced. However, due to the frequency of changes in investment adviser rules, RCC offers no guaranty or warranty that the most current rules have been incorporated into the electronic authoring wizard; RCC recommends Client also review the Securities Regulator's rules.

The Self-Customized, Regulator Specific WSP/CoE will address the following applicable topics: registration and notice filing requirements including representative licensing; client communications (advertising and correspondence); social media and networking websites; best execution; books and records; business continuity and disaster recovery; code of ethics; personal securities transaction and holding reports; client complaints; custody; client directed brokerage; trading practices including soft dollar arrangements; solicitor arrangements; privacy of client information; Form ADV disclosures and annual offer; insider trading; proxy voting; political contributions; handling whistleblower complaints; Schedule 13D, 13F, & 13G filings; and foreign clients. RCC's electronic authoring wizard is not comprehensive; there are certain practices, policies, procedures, business models or other variables related to the general topics referenced above which are not addressed by RCC's electronic authoring wizard. The electronic authoring wizard may also become out of date due to changes in the investment adviser rules of the Securities Regulator.

Client is responsible for reviewing the actual investment adviser rules of the Securities Regulator and also understanding, reviewing, editing/customizing, implementing and updating the final version of the WSP/CoE once Client has received the version prepared by RCC's electronic authoring wizard. Client acknowledges that this WSP/CoE prepared by RCC's electronic authoring wizard is not the same as or a substitute for retaining a compliance professional to advise and assist Client regarding Client's investment adviser compliance program.

RCC will provide Client with access to the following sample forms during the engagement period: annual compliance calendar checklist; books and records documentation log; suggested list of compliance files and reports; code of ethics acknowledgement form; compliance manual acknowledgement form; sample customer privacy policy notice; and customer privacy notice request/receipt log.

Exhibit B - Fees & Term

The fixed fee is $695 ("Fixed Fee") for the Compliance Services under this Agreement. The Fixed Fee will be due in advance upon execution of this Agreement. Upon providing Client access or a link to the electronic wizard, RIA Express – Manual Drafter, the Fixed Fee will be considered earned by RCC. The Fixed Fee is non-refundable even if Client did not utilize the electronic wizard.

The Fixed Fee is limited solely to compensating RCC for providing the Compliance Services under this Agreement. There are additional service fees charged by RCC if Client requests RCC to perform tasks, provide services or prepare documents not included in the Compliance Services under this Agreement.

The Compliance Services under this Agreement do not include any WSP/CoE Hours to assist Client with the customization of the WSP/CoE beyond the version created by the electronic authoring wizard. If Client requests a RCC consultant to assist with customizing the WSP/CoE beyond the version created by the electronic wizard, RCC will require Client to pay a retainer in advance ("Subsequent Retainer Amount") and will charge Client an hourly fee at the RCC consultant's standard hourly billing rate and also subject to our Minimum Fixed Fee Schedule.

Retainer

It will be necessary for Client to pay in advance a retainer initially in the amount of $695 that will be available for RCC to bill against fees and expenses owed by Client for RCC's Compliance Services.

After the initial retainer payment amount has been applied to outstanding fees and/or expenses incurred at RCC for Compliance Services, Client may need to make another retainer payment in a mutually agreeable amount in order for RCC to continue to work with Client. In the event that the amount that Client owes RCC for such fees and expenses exceeds the retainer payment(s), Client will be required to pay this outstanding amount within 30 days of the presentment of the invoice.

Any amount paid by Client to RCC for initial or subsequent retainer is non-refundable even if the fees and/or expenses actually incurred for Compliance Services do not exceed the retainer payment amount(s). A retainer payment must be used by Client for the fees and expenses incurred due to Compliance Services provided within 12 months of such payment. A retainer payment cannot be applied against new fees and/or expenses incurred at RCC after the 12-month anniversary of the retainer payment. Client is solely responsible for monitoring the 12-month anniversary of each retainer payment and determining whether to utilize RCC for additional services within this 12-month period.

Retainer payments made to RCC are not held in a client trust account. Retainer payments made to RCC are not maintained in a separate account for the benefit of Client. A retainer payment is a general asset of RCC upon RCC's receipt of such retainer payment.

Payment via Credit Card

RCC can accept payment via credit card or ACH withdrawal. Client agrees that if Client has a dispute with RCC, Client will not raise this dispute with Client's credit card company/ACH processor or seek adjudication of any dispute with RCC through or by Client's credit card company/ACH processor. Client agrees that if Client pays the consulting fees via credit card or ACH, Client will not instruct Client's credit card company, ACH processor or bank to reverse such charges. If Client cancels the credit card or bank account on file with RCC or the credit card on file expires during the duration of the Agreement and subsequent payments are still due, Client will provide RCC with another valid credit card or bank account to use for payment of the Consulting Fee.

Billing Date

RCC's standard billing dates and events are typically the following: (1) the first or last business day of each month; (2) the date when the billable task, phase or portion of work is substantially completed; (3) the date when the sample form is provided or made available; (4) the date when incurred fees and expenses will exceed the unused retainer payment; (5) the date when the engagement is concluded by either Client or RCC; and (6) the date of a specific event or milestone listed in Exhibit A or Exhibit B of this Agreement.

Invoice Delivery

RCC will deliver the invoice electronically to Client, and Client will be responsible for paying the outstanding amount, if any, within 30 days of presentment of invoice.

Minimum Fixed Fee

To the extent that RCC performs a task/activity or set of tasks/activities listed on the Minimum Fixed Fee & Hourly Rate Schedule, Client will be charged the greater of the hourly fees incurred or the minimum fixed fee listed on the Minimum Fixed Fee & Hourly Rate Schedule. RCC reserves the right to add, change and delete the tasks/activities and corresponding fees of the Minimum Fixed Fee & Hourly Rate Schedule effective immediately upon RCC giving client notice of applicable additions, changes or deletions.

Sample Forms

To the extent that RCC provides the Client with sample forms, Client acknowledges that the providing of such sample forms to Client does not include discussion with the Client's customization of the sample for or assistance with customizing the sample form. To the extent that Client requests RCC to discuss the customization of the sample form or to customize a sample form for the Client, RCC will bill against the Budgeted Hours, if available, or at the consultant's hourly rate if Budgeted Hours have been expended for time spent discussing or preparing the customized form. If the sample form is not provided as part of this Agreement, RCC may charge Client the current published price for the sample form plus the additional hourly work by RCC's staff to discuss such form with Client and customize the sample form to Client's specifications and/or requirements.

Schedule 1 - Disclosures & Compliance Service Limits

The following are important disclosures by RIA Compliance Consultants, Inc. ("RCC") and limitations related to the service provided by RCC and acknowledgements and representations by Client under this Agreement.

1. No Guarantees. RCC will make every reasonable effort to provide the Compliance Services described in this Agreement. However, there is no guarantee that consulting work performed by RCC will be favorably received by the Securities Regulator. Although RCC may assist Client in disclosing an investment advisory program and fee, RCC does not offer any guarantee that such disclosure regarding a program/fee will be approved by the securities regulator. Likewise, RCC offers no assurances that RCC will identify the same issues, concerns, deficiencies or violations raised by the Securities Regulator. Finally, Client acknowledges that there may be new business models and/or practices utilized by Client which have not been scrutinized by the Securities Regulator in the past and subject to published guidance or enforcement actions, and RCC is not offering any guarantees or assurances that it will identify the investment adviser compliance issues associated with such new business models and practices utilized by Client.
2. Not Serving as CCO or Supervisor. RCC will not serve as Client's chief compliance officer. RCC's role is strictly in an advisory only capacity. RCC will not be responsible for the supervision of Client or its associated persons. Client and Client's chief compliance officer may not delegate, assign nor outsource any supervision task or duty to RCC. Under no circumstances will RCC serve as the primary reviewer of, but not necessarily limited to, the personal securities transactions of Client's supervised and/or access persons, the Client's email and other written correspondence with its clients, the Client's advertising and marketing materials, and the Client or its associated persons outside business activity requests. To the extent RCC reviews any such materials, RCC will provide its comments and recommendations to the Client's chief compliance officer or his/her designee. To the extent that Client has requested a review and/or comments from RCC and Client does not receive any comments from RCC, it will be solely Client's responsibility to check with RCC regarding the status of any review and comments. RCC's review and/or comments should not be considered by Client to be an approval or denial of the issue nor a substitute for an actual review by Client's chief compliance officer and/or his/her designee within the firm. Client's chief compliance officer or his/her designee within the firm is solely responsible for resolving any issues related to RCC's comments, following up with RCC if necessary, implementing RCC's recommendations (if Client so desires) and maintaining the final approval or denial of such materials and retain all records associated with such reviews (including RCC's comments should Client choose to retain RCC's comments) for Client's files. RCC will not necessarily identify all of the issues, concerns, deficiencies or violations that might be raised by the Securities Regulator.

3. Not Incorporating/Forming Entity. RCC does not assist with establishing or maintaining organizational entities such as a corporation, limited liability company, general partnership and limited partnership. RCC recommends Client discuss such matters with its attorney and accountant.
4. Not an Accounting Firm. Since RCC is not an accounting firm or a CPA and does not provide accounting or tax advice, RCC will not prepare any of the financial statements that may be required by a securities regulator. RCC does not compile, prepare, certify or audit financial statements. RCC does not advise Client nor verify whether Client is meeting applicable net capital requirements or whether Client is in a precarious financial condition. RCC does not conduct audits for the purpose of meeting state or SEC custody requirements of investment advisors. Nor will any work performed by RCC consist of a review of the internal controls of the Client in accordance with AICPA Statement on Auditing Standards No. 70, or any other authoritative literature. RCC does not perform forensic accounting for purposes of detecting fraud by Client or Client's owners, directors, officers, employees, investment adviser representatives, solicitors, custodians, third-party money managers, vendors or outside professionals. RCC does not calculate or verify investment performance of Client or any third-party investment advisors or investments.
5. Net Capital Requirements. If Client is a state registered investment adviser, Client acknowledges that (a) the state may have a net capital requirement for investment adviser and require Client to maintain continuously such net capital and submit (initially and annually) financial statements to the state, and (b) it is Client's obligation to check with the state as to the state's net capital requirements and submit such financial statements as required by the state regulator. If Client is an SEC registered investment adviser, Client acknowledges that Client has an obligation to disclose promptly to its investment advisory clients if Client has a precarious financial condition. Client agrees to retain an accountant if Client has questions regarding net capital requirements or whether Client is in a precarious financial condition.
6. Reasonable Advisory Fees. Client should disclose in writing all fees charged to its investment advisory clients and any direct and indirect compensation and soft dollar benefits received by Client and its affiliates and supervised persons related to its investment advisory services or investment recommendations. RCC is relying exclusively upon Client to identify (and verify inclusion of applicable disclosure language in the Form ADV Part) all fees charged to investment advisory clients and all direct and indirect compensation and soft dollar benefits received by Client and its affiliates and supervised persons. In addition, Client should be able to establish that such fees and compensation are reasonable in relation to the services provided to the investment advisory client. RCC recommends that Client initially and periodically utilize a third-party benchmarking service to verify that the investment advisory fees charged for each particular advisory service is competitive with the market. RCC does not provide investment advisory fee benchmarking services and cannot provide any guarantees or assurances that a securities regulator will find the investment advisory fees as reasonable fees. To the extent that Client changes its pricing for new investment advisory clients and grandfathers existing investment advisory clients at a different rate, the existence of the grandfathered rate will most likely be viewed by a regulator as a material fact that needs to be fully disclosed in the Form ADV Part 2A Item 5. Client should conduct an internal audit each calendar quarter to verify that the applicable services were actually provided, the investment advisory fees were correctly valued and calculated and if applicable correctly invoiced and/or deducted in accordance with the executed client agreements and the Form ADV Part 2A (or Appendix I if applicable) client disclosure brochure. RCC does not assist with valuing assets and does not conduct fee calculation audits.

7. Adversarial Proceeding. RCC is not a law firm and will not represent Client at an administrative hearing or other legal proceeding. RCC recommends that Client immediately retain legal counsel to advise and represent Client's interest regarding any potential, impending or current administrative or legal proceeding.
8. Insurance Regulations. RCC does not provide advice regarding insurance regulations or insurance licensing. To the extent that Client or its investment adviser representative refund financial planning fees or other investment advisory fees if insurance or an annuity is purchased through Client or its investment adviser representative, Client will be solely responsible for checking with the applicable state insurance regulator to determine whether this is considered a prohibited activity of rebating an insurance/annuity policy.
9. Private Equity. To the extent that Client or its affiliate advises or manages a private equity fund, (i) the Compliance Services of RCC under this Agreement do not include evaluating whether the allocation of fees and expenses between the private equity fund and its investors has been properly and sufficiently disclosed to the fund or investors of the fund, and (ii) Client acknowledges its fiduciary responsibility to fully disclose to investors in the fund the fees and expenses paid by the funds and the method and manner in which Client allocates fees and expenses between Client, the fund, the portfolio companies of the fund, and/or the fund's investors.
10. Investment Advice. RCC is not an investment adviser and does not provide investment advice. RCC does not evaluate the suitability of or risks associated with Client's investment advice or investment management provided to its investment advisory customer. RCC is not responsible for providing advice as to whether Client is acting in the best interests of any particular investment advisory customer. RCC is not a benchmarking service and does not determine whether Client's fees are reasonable. RCC does not provide due diligence services. RCC does not evaluate the investment performance of or risks posed by a particular security, sub-advisor, third-party money manager or investment platform.
11. Registration. The Compliance Service under this Agreement does not include an analysis or opinion of whether Client is exempted from registration as an investment advisor, broker-dealer, or investment company, whether a supervised person of Client is exempted from registration as an investment adviser representative, whether an employee of a parent company is required to register as an investment adviser representative and/or whether the owner (including indirect owner) of Client's investment adviser firm is exempted from registration as an investment adviser representative. If Client desire an opinion of whether registration is required, Client should retain legal counsel.

Client acknowledges that state securities regulators typically require an individual who is a direct or indirect owner of a state registered investment adviser firm to register as an investment adviser representative, and RCC cannot offer any assurances that the owner of Client's state registered investment adviser firm will not be subject to such requirements.

If Client is a state registered investment adviser, Client acknowledges that (a) the state may require Client to submit annually certain documents directly to the state securities regulator (outside of the IARD/CRD system), (b) it is Client's obligation to check with the state securities regulator as to whether there are any documents required to be submitted (outside of the IARD/CRD system) to the state securities regulator on an annual basis and also to carefully review any communication from the state regulator with respect to such annual submissions outside of the IARD/CRD system, and (c) Client will be responsible solely for the submission of such documents as required by the state securities regulator.

Client acknowledges that certain solicitor activities on behalf of a private fund and/or private fund manager may constitute acting as a broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended depending upon the facts. Client further acknowledges such analysis and advice regarding this issue is outside the scope of the Compliance Services under this Agreement, and to the extent that Client provides solicitor services to a private fund or utilizes solicitors for a private fund, Client agrees to retain legal counsel to provide advice to Client regarding the broker-dealer registration requirements.

12. Broker-Dealer Regulations. Unless agreed upon otherwise in writing by RCC's president, RCC does not provide advice regarding federal and state laws and regulations and self-regulatory organization (e.g. FINRA) rules for broker-dealers and registered representatives/securities agents of broker-dealers.
13. Security. RCC does not provide advice regarding whether a financial product constitutes a "security" under state or federal law or can be exempted from registration. RCC does not prepare securities offering documents such as a prospectus or private placement memorandum. RCC does not provide advice regarding the distribution of security products under state and federal securities laws.
14. ICA '40. Unless agreed upon otherwise in writing by RCC's president, RCC does not provide advice or compliance consulting/services regarding the regulations under the Investment Company Act of 1940.
15. Fiduciary Duty. Client understands that an investment advisor has a fiduciary duty to its clients. In general terms, an investment advisor has an affirmative duty of utmost good faith to act solely in the best interests of the client and to make full and fair disclosures of all material facts. The parameters of an investment adviser's duty depend upon the scope of the advisory relationship and generally are considered to include the following among others:
 - Having a reasonable, independent basis for investment advice;
 - Providing only investment advice that is suitable to each individual client's needs, goals and objectives, and personal circumstances;
 - Exercising reasonable care to avoid misleading clients;
 - Being loyal to the client and acting in good faith;
 - Obtaining best execution when recommending or selecting a share class or implementing the client's transactions where the investment adviser representative has the ability to direct brokerage transactions for the client;
 - Making full and fair disclosure to the client of all material facts and when a conflict of interest exists and taking reasonable measures to mitigate such conflict of interest;
 - Place the interests of clients first;
 - Treat all clients fairly; and
 - Maintain the confidentiality of client information.

Client understands that if Client provides investment advisory services through an investment adviser representative who is also an insurance agent and/or registered representative of a broker-dealer and such investment adviser representative discusses advisory, broker-dealer and insurance services and products in combined fashion at a single meeting (depending upon the facts and circumstances), there is a risk that an investment advisory client or a securities regulator may try to hold Client and/or such investment adviser representative as a fiduciary as it relates to these other non-advisory capacities (e.g., insurance, broker-dealer). Client acknowledges that the services of RCC do not include providing compliance advice as to Client about how to provide such non-advisory services or products in accordance with any fiduciary duty or applicable standard of care.

16. Custody. The Compliance Services under this Agreement do not include verifying existence and/or safekeeping of the assets held by Client or a third-party custodian.
17. Exam by Securities Regulator. Client understands that an actual examination of Client's investment advisor by a securities regulator is likely to be more staff intensive and broader in scope than the service offered by RCC or alternatively much more focused and deeper than the Compliance Services offered by RCC, and consequently, a securities regulator is likely to detect deficiencies, which were not uncovered during Compliance Services provided by RCC (e.g., an assessment of Client's investment advisory documents or compliance program) as part of the Compliance Services under this Agreement. The Compliance Services under this Agreement do not replicate an actual routine, focused, sweep or for cause investment advisor examination by Securities Regulator. An on-site examination by a securities regulator could last from three days to several weeks. It is common for the securities regulator to utilize several staff members for a routine on-site examination, and these staff members may have extensive expertise in accounting, operations, and investment and trading strategies, which are areas that are not covered by RCC when providing Compliance Services under this Agreement. Furthermore, a securities regulator may devote an unlimited number of hours to a routine examination of Client.
18. Forensic Testing. Except where expressly stated otherwise, Client understands that RCC does not conduct forensic testing as part of the Compliance Services under this Agreement, and RCC relies upon self-disclosures and representations made by Client's investment adviser representatives, staff and officers without independent or additional verification. Unlike the typical practices of securities regulator during an investment advisor examination, RCC will accept sample documents provided by Client's investment adviser representatives, staff or officers in lieu of actual documents gathered by RCC or retrieved from third-parties.
19. Suitability/Due Diligence. The Compliance Service does not include any evaluation of the suitability or prudence of asset allocations, investment and trading strategies or investment recommendations made by Client. Additionally, RCC does not conduct due diligence of investment products, securities issuers, qualified custodians, third-party vendors, fund managers, or other investment advisers utilized by Client. RCC does not offer investment advice.
20. Disclosure Language Provided by Third-Parties. To the extent that a third-party (e.g., qualified custodian, wrap sponsor, TAMP sponsor, outside money manager, sub-adviser, independent broker-dealer of the Client's IARs, or vendor) provides sample disclosure language or edits for Client's Form ADV, RCC is not responsible for verifying the accuracy of such disclosure language/edits and may rely upon such sample disclosures/edits from the third-party without further investigation/review. Client acknowledges that it is solely Client's responsibility to review (and revise as necessary) such sample disclosure language/edits from a third-party for accuracy and consistency with Client's actual business practices.

21. Accuracy of Info Provided to RCC. Client recognizes the value and usefulness of the Compliance Services of RCC are dependent upon the accuracy and completeness of the information provided by Client to RCC. Client will provide RCC with all requested information and documents that RCC may request. As it relates to the issues raised by Client, Client will affirmatively disclose to RCC (without RCC making a specific request) the following: (a) any deficiencies or violations (known to Client or Client's executives, staff or investment adviser representatives) of Client's code of ethics or supervisory procedures and policies; (b) any deficiencies or violations (known to Client or Client's executives, staff or investment adviser representatives) of applicable rules, regulations or laws; (c) any current or prior inquiries or investigations by Client regarding violations of Client's code of ethics or supervisory procedures and policies, any rules, regulations and laws, or industry practices; (d) any current or prior customer disputes, arbitrations or lawsuits related to Client or Client's executives, staff or investment adviser representatives; (d) any advice obtained by Client from a third-party compliance consultant or legal counsel that is inconsistent with RCC's recommendations; (e) any regulatory or criminal inquiries, investigations or proceedings regarding Client or Client's owners, directors, officers, employees, investment adviser representatives, custodians, third-party money managers or vendors; and (f) any known allegation of fraud or suspected fraud committed by Client or a current or former executive, staff member or investment adviser representative of Client. Since RCC will rely upon Client and Client's executives, staff and/or investment adviser representatives to discharge the foregoing responsibilities, Client holds harmless and indemnifies RCC, its owners, officers and employees from all claims, liabilities, losses, and costs arising in circumstances where there has been a misrepresentation or omission by an executive, staff or investment adviser representative of Client that has caused, in any respect, RCC's breach of contract or negligence. This provision will survive termination of this Agreement.

RCC will not be responsible for the verification of the information and documentation provided by Client. RCC will not be responsible for verifying the accuracy or truthfulness of any information, document or statements provided by the owners, directors, officers, employees, investment adviser representatives, custodians, third-party money managers, vendors or outside professionals (such as attorneys and accountants) of Client. RCC will not be responsible for verifying statements in the Form ADV are accurate and truthful. Client will be solely responsible for verify the accuracy and truthfulness of all documents prepared by RCC on Client's behalf.

Client acknowledges that Client is solely responsible for both (a) identifying and bringing to RCC's attention Client's business practices and outside business activities which are in conflict with an investment advisory client's interest and/or Client's fiduciary duty and (b) then verifying that any such conflicts have been eliminated or disclosed and mitigated and that Client is meeting its fiduciary duty. RCC offers no assurances that RCC will identify revenue streams, business practices, arrangements and/or outside business activities which are in conflict with an investment advisory client's interest or otherwise a breach of Client's fiduciary duty; moreover, due to the nature of a consulting relationship, RCC anticipates that depending upon the circumstances, there will be some conflicts of interest and/or breaches of fiduciary duty which RCC does not identify to Client. RCC is not a substitute for Client and Client's directors, officers, managers, employees and representatives from regularly and carefully reviewing Client and its affiliate's sources of revenue, business practices, arrangements and outside business activities for purposes of identifying conflicts of interest and breaches of fiduciary duty.

22. Continuously Review/Update Form ADV & Verify Its Truthfulness - Client's Responsibility.

Client acknowledges that the Form ADV is essentially a "living and breathing" document which needs to be reviewed regularly and personally by Client's management and continuously updated by Client as personnel, services, fees, vendor relationship and business practices change and certain events take place. Client is aware that a securities regulator will hold Client accountable for the accuracy, truthfulness, timeliness and completeness of the descriptions and disclosures in Client's Form ADV documents. RCC will not be responsible for verifying the accuracy or truthfulness of any information, descriptions or disclosures on the Form ADV. Client will be solely responsible for verifying the accuracy and truthfulness of all draft and final versions of the Form ADV documents prepared or filed by RCC on behalf of Client. Client will verify all draft and final versions of the Form ADV are consistent with Client's actual business practices and arrangements. Client will review promptly all draft and final versions of the Form ADV documents prepared or filed by RCC and immediately advise RCC in writing of any inaccuracies related to such documents. Client agrees to read the Securities Regulator's separate questions and underlying instructions/guidance of each item when reviewing the Form ADV, and Client acknowledges that failure by Client to read such separate instructions of the Securities Regulator when reviewing an answer or disclosure language on the Form ADV could result in inaccurate or material omissions to the Form ADV.

23. Implementing RCC Recommendations. RCC will not be responsible for verifying whether Client implemented any recommendation made by RCC to Client. To the extent that Client requested RCC review a document and/or provide guidance on a topic and Client has not received such review and/or guidance from RCC, Client will be solely responsible for following up with RCC in writing regarding the status of such review or guidance.

24. Contrary Compliance Advice. If Client receives research, analysis, advice or opinion from a regulator, internal legal or compliance department and/or third-party compliance consultant, attorney or compliance department of a broker-dealer/qualified custodian/sub-adviser/outside money manager/vendor (collectively referred to as "third-party compliance professional") regarding the same or a similar question, issue or topic in which RCC also provided Client with research, analysis, advice or opinion and such third-party compliance professional made comments or provided advice, recommendations or conclusions that differ from RCC, Client will disclose promptly the content and details of such third-party compliance professional's research, analysis, advice or opinion to RCC in order for RCC to determine whether RCC needs to clarify its guidance. RCC does not guarantee that it will identify all potential compliance issues related to certain questions, issues or topics, and failure by Client to share the above information from a third-party compliance professional prevents RCC from identifying potential blind spots and helping Client address potential issues or risks.

25. Non-Solicit/Employment Law. RCC does not provide advice or guidance (and Client will not rely upon RCC under any circumstances) regarding whether Client or Client's associates are violating any legal obligation (e.g., non-compete, non-solicit of clients, duty of loyalty, privacy policy, confidentiality agreement, trade secrets and/or unapproved outside business activity) to a current or former employer, investment adviser firm or broker-dealer. RCC strongly recommends that Client and Client's associates retain local legal counsel to advise Client and Client's associates regarding any such legal obligations to a current or former employer, investment adviser firm or broker-dealer.

26. Not Cybersecurity Expert. RCC is not an expert in information technology ("IT") or information security. Employees of RCC are not trained or certified in IT or information security. Client understands that RCC's compliance consultants are not information security consultants but merely lay people with no technical expertise in IT or information security. RCC does not provide information security risk assessments, audits of information security plans or penetration testing of Client's systems. RCC and its Compliance Services are not a substitute for retaining an information security or IT consultant to identify cybersecurity risks and advise and assist Client with Client's information security plan and practices.
27. Client Must Be Pro-Active. Client is responsible for staying current on regulatory developments. In order to stay current on such regulatory developments, Client should subscribe to (and buy if not part of the Service's under this Agreement) and review each month RCC's newsletter, latest sample forms/compliance manual sections and monthly module for RCC's compliance review tool and attend RCC's monthly compliance webinars and annual compliance conference. However, Client understands that RCC's Compliance Services under this Agreement do not include monitoring and reporting on latest regulatory developments. As a result, Client should monitor directly announcements of new rules, risk alerts, examination priorities and enforcement actions made by the securities regulators with jurisdiction over Client's investment advisory activities; RCC recommends Client sign-up for the applicable securities regulator's newsletters and regularly visit (each quarter) the website of the securities regulator for new regulatory developments, and Client should ensure that Client's email addresses listed on the Form ADV Part 1 are current and that the securities regulator's email address has been added to the white list of the Client's email provider. Client agrees that Client will carefully and promptly review all communications from a regulator and Client understands that to the extent that RCC reports a regulatory development to Client, such reporting is not comprehensive of all regulatory developments. Client is aware that RCC will not contact Client regarding every new regulatory development. Client is solely responsible for identifying those topics, issues or questions that it desires assistance or advice from RCC.

Client understands that RCC does not serve as a supervisory principal, the compliance department or the chief compliance officer of Client. Client's compliance with applicable laws and rules for an investment adviser is not being outsourced to RCC under this Agreement. In order to meet Client's regulatory obligations, Client's executive officers and staff must devote significant time and focus to compliance each week and be actively involved in Client's compliance program. Client's executive officers and staff are solely responsible under this Agreement for whether Client is meeting its regulatory obligations.

29. Client Not Affiliated with Anyone Barred from Securities Industry. Client represents and warrants at the time this Agreement is executed and during the term of this Agreement the following: (a) Client's investment adviser firm is not owned (in part or whole) directly or indirectly or otherwise controlled by any individual that is barred currently from the securities industry by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, a state securities regulator in the U.S., or a securities regulator in a foreign jurisdiction; (b) the directors, officers and owners (including indirect owners of a holding company or trust) of Client's investment adviser do not have a spouse, parent or adult child who is barred currently from the securities industry by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, a state securities regulator in the U.S., or a securities regulator in a foreign jurisdiction; (c) Client's investment adviser firm does not have any directors, officers, employees, investment adviser representatives, independent contractors or other arrangements with any individuals who are barred currently from the securities industry by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, a state securities regulator in the U.S., or a securities regulator in a foreign jurisdiction.

30. Conflicts of Interest. Client acknowledges and understands that a conflict of interest is a scenario where a person or firm has an incentive to serve one interest at the expense of another interest or obligation; in other words, a conflict of interest could be (a) serving the interest of the investment adviser firm over the client, (b) serving the interest of one client over another client, or (c) an employee or group of employees serving their own interests over the firm or its clients.

Furthermore, Client acknowledges that Client as an investment adviser has a fiduciary duty to eliminate conflicts of interest and prevent an investment adviser from taking unfair advantages of a client. If a policy or practice, internal or external business relationship/arrangement or outside business activity creates a conflict of interest, Client is fully aware that Client must make full and fair disclosure of all material facts and mitigate the conflict of interest, and Client must act in client's best interest at all times.

Client understands that a securities regulator is not approving or offering an opinion of specific conflict of interest disclosure language and mitigation measures in the Form ADV when Client's application to register as an investment adviser is approved by the securities regulator, and a previous examination by a securities regulator with no applicable findings does not mean that the securities regulator has approved of the specific conflict of interest disclosure language or mitigation measures in Client's Form ADV. Client acknowledges that regulatory focus and priorities change over time and whether a securities regulator views a conflict of interest as especially problematic for an investment adviser can change from year to year. Likewise, a securities regulator's expectation of acceptable disclosures/mitigations by an investment adviser also can change from time to time. Due to this ever-changing environment, Client should regularly review and re-review its business practices for conflicts of interest on a regular basis and any conflict of interest disclosure language and mitigation measures in light of the most recent regulatory developments.

Although RCC may assist Client with identifying conflicts of interest, RCC does not take responsibility for identifying, disclosing and mitigating conflicts of interest. Regardless of any assistance or advice provided by RCC, Client is solely responsible for identifying conflicts of interest and disclosing/mitigating such conflicts and correspondingly re-reviewing its policies/practices, business relationships/arrangements and outside business activities for conflicts of interest.

RCC strongly recommends that Client make every attempt to avoid and prohibit any internal policy, procedure or practice, internal or external business relationship/arrangement with an affiliate or third-party or outside business activity of supervised persons which creates a conflict of interest. Client acknowledges that it is solely Client's responsibility to identify and determine whether to avoid/prohibit a particular conflict of interest. RIA Compliance Consultants has no responsibility to advise Client to refrain from the underlying activity or arrangement causing the conflict of interest. To the extent Client does not avoid/prohibit the policy, procedure, practice, relationship/arrangement or outside business activity creating the conflict of interest, Client acknowledges that an investment adviser firm must explicitly disclose, in writing, all conflicts of interest using robust and reasonable disclosure language that the investment adviser firm's investment advisory clients will fully and sufficiently understand in a clear and concise manner, and Client must also disclose its policies and procedures to control for and mitigate the conflicts of interest so Client is able to evidence that it is acting in the investment advisory client's best interest. Any assistance or advice provided by RCC regarding the identification of a conflict of interest, the drafting of disclosure language/mitigation procedures of a conflict, or the assessing/testing of such disclosure/mitigation of a conflict is not a recommendation, endorsement or safe harbor by RCC that Client should engage in such conflict of interest. RCC offers no assurance that any advice, draft language or procedure or assessment/test provided by

RCC with respect to a conflict of interest will be effective and meet the expectations of a securities regulator. Client releases RCC from any and all liability associated with or related to identification, disclosure and mitigation of Client's conflicts of interest. In the opinion of RCC, the most prudent practice is for Client to avoid and prohibit any policy/procedure, internal or external business relationship/arrangement with affiliates or third-parties or outside business activity which creates a conflict of interest.
